File: Charlie Chaplin, the Marriage A clip from the Charlie Chaplin silent film The Bond 1918 The rise of European cinema was interrupted by the outbreak of World War I, while the film industry in the United States flourished with the rise of Hollywood, typified most prominently by the innovative work of D. W. Griffith in The Birth of a Nation 1915 and Intolerance 1916. However, in the 1920s, European filmmakers such as Eisenstein, F. W. Murnau and Fritz Lang, in many ways inspired by the meteoric wartime progress of film through Griffith, along with the contributions of Charles Chaplin, Buster Keaton and others, quickly caught up with American film-making and continued to further advance the medium.

The Chinese film industry had lost US billion by March 2020, having closed all its cinemas during the Lunar New Year period that sustains the industry across Asia.<sup>2</sup> North America saw its lowest box office weekend since 1998 between March 13–15.<sup>3</sup> Demon Slayer: Mugen Train, the highest-grossing film of 2020, earned 3 million worldwide.<sup>4</sup> It was the first time since 2007 that the top-grossing film of a given year had earned less than billion and the first time a non-American film was the top-grossing film of the year.<sup>5</sup>

Warner Bros. followed Disney by announcing the postponement of the rest of their upcoming slate on March 24. Tenet was pushed from July 17, 2020, to July 31, 2020, then August 12, 2020 before it was held up indefinitely.<sup>108</sup> Wonder Woman 1984 was pushed to August 14, 2020, then to October 2, 2020, and then again to December 25, 2020, with Scoob!, In the Heights, and Malignant being delayed indefinitely. This resulted in Scoob! not having a theatrical release in North America and that film went straight to video on demand, while In the Heights moved to its new release date of June 18, 2021.<sup>109</sup> Prior to this, on March 19, Universal and Illumination announced that Minions: The Rise of Gru had been pulled from its intended release date of July 3, 2020, not only due to the pandemic but also due to the temporary closing of its French Illumination Mac Guff animation studio in response to the pandemic, which would leave the film's animation to be unfinished on its original date.<sup>110</sup> On April 1, 2020, the film was rescheduled for July 2, 2021 taking the planned release date of Sing 2, a year after its original date.<sup>111</sup>
